

Vienna Airport: LOT Pays a Visit with a Retro-Painted Embraer 175

Today, Tuesday May 27, 2014, the Polish airline LOT paid a visit to Vienna Airport operating a retro-painted Embraer ERJ-175. This was on the occasion of the 85th anniversary of the airline. As a result, representatives of LOT and Vienna Airport were present at a joint photo session to mark the landing of the retro jet. Ten hobby photographers with a passion for aviation also attended. They were invited by LOT and Vienna Airport to get a close look of the aircraft and take pictures of it.

Interesting photo subject: Retro-painted Embraer jet in Vienna

The retro jet departing from Warsaw landed on schedule at 8:45 a.m. and left Vienna Airport at 9:50 a.m. for its return flight to the Polish capital. The aircraft can be seen again and again in Vienna in the upcoming weeks. The retro-painted Embraer jet is part of the normal aircraft deployment and will thus repeatedly have a stopover at Vienna Airport. Whoever wants to get a glimpse of this special aircraft is advised to visit the observation terrace located on the roof of Check-in 3.

LOT: 85 years of high-quality passenger service

The Polish airline LOT was founded in the year 1929, and is celebrating its 85th anniversary in 2014. Its current route network encompasses more than 50 destinations in Europe, the Middle East, Asia and North America. LOT is a member of the Star Alliance airline group.
